In September, the School was opened in its new quarters with a corps of seven teachers, including instructors in drawing, modelling, the application of design to oil-cloths and textiles, weaving, and wood-carving. During the summer the rooms had been fitted up with appliances for teaching these branches of art industry. The wood-carving room has seven benches with a full set of tools for each bench. The weaving-rooms have two pattern hand-looms, duplicates of those in use at the Bradford Technical School, Bradford, England; one Jacquard loom, made especially for the School, and capable of carrying thirty-six hundred threads for thirty-six inch goods; and one Compton loom, forty-four inch, twenty-seven sets harness. This latter was the generous gift of Mr. George Compton, of Worcester, Massachusetts, who in his letter conveying the gift wrote: I present the...
