No one else is forking out dough, you big baboon. I wouldn t recommend repeating those words to anyone who is dangling you a foot off the ground. My face suddenly felt like it had collided with a cement wall at forty miles per hour. I found myself sliding across the tile floor and coming to rest in the corner of the hallway. You hit me! I rubbed my jaw in disbelief. Damian had always seemed a level-headed sort of guy. I can t believe you hit me! I ll do a lot worse than that! A handful of spectators scrambled out of the way as he lunged for me. I dove behind a bench outside the high school office. The secretary never even looked up. I hoped word of my death in front of the wide, newly installed security window didn t leak out to the city s more violent criminal element. I just can t catch a break. Most of my friends only concern themselves with girls...
