What has urged this mighty nation onward? Amidst the unceasing vicissitude of human affairs, in sunshine and in shade, in tempest and in calm, in danger, trouble and distress, amidst the terrific convulsions which have agitated the civilized world, what energy has secured to this country a continual career of splendid and progressive triumph? The Spirit of Independence! The earliest, loftiest inspiration of the soul. The source of courage, constancy and hope. The spirit which teaches man, his dignity and his destiny. The power which develops his moral, his intellectual and his physical capacities and assimilates him to his Creator. The great artificer of human character, the mighty controller of. human fate. This spirit restrained by religion and directed by law, enlightened by reason and chastened by virtue, is the hereditary characteristic of the American people. It was the spirit of the Pilgrims in their native land. It armed them against ecclesiastical domination and dictated their charter of religious freedom.
