Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Organization and Work of the Station The West Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station was organized in June, 1888, by the Board of Regents of the West Virginia University accepting the Congressional Appropriation, dividing it into separate funds, electing a director, appointing suitable committees and indicating an outline of the work to be undertaken for the next year. The Board finds itself without any buildings for the Experiment Station, without any farm for experimental work, and with no money, outside of the restricted appropriation for building purposes, with which to provide either. The Director found the Station without a staff of scientific workers and with no place to put them if he had them. It will thus be seen that we are starting with the foundation. It need not be expected that the Station can accomplish much scientific work until we have had time to overcome the difficulties facing us. It is hoped that the farmers of West Virginia will press the matter of agricultural education in our State so vigorously in the near future that our legislature will be constrained to, provide for the promotion of a more profitable system of agriculture. The National government has been liberal to this State, and particularly to the farming classes, in its endeavors to develop agricultural interests. The question may be asked very seriously, What has our State done to avail itself of the munificence of the General government? To what extent has it supplemented the efforts of our National government to develop the agricultural interests of this State and to educate our farming classes? Why should not this State, as other States, receiving the land grant of 1862,...
