

Commonism: The Manifesto of A New Social Order

By I.P. Singh

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1991. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xiv+502pp What we have witnessed in Eastern Europe during the last two years was, in effect, a Second Fall of Constantinople. But, Communism did not crumble under the onslaught of Capitalism. It succumbed to its own contradictions. State Capitalism, which owed its name to Lenin and substance to Stalin, has proved inadequate. Lenin has realized this within five years of Communist rule, but Stalin erased Lenin's New Economic Policy from the Marxist agenda. The solution to the problems of socialism does not lie in capitalism. The latter has already demonstrated its bankruptcy. Its tallest institution, the multi-national corporation, can no more foster the spirit of free enterprise than state capitalism. Both are oligopolies, in which the worker has no chance of profit. The answer to the problems of socialism lies in taking Marx to his logical conclusion, that is, giving to the workers, from top to bottom, their judicious share in the surplus value created by them in each enterprise. All economic activity results from interaction of three forces- capital, labour and the state apparatus. An economic system in which these forces are in equilibrium has best chance of success. In an...
