We dont want to repeat the mistakes of the Taliban, he warned, whose regime collapsed in days because the people were passive or hostile. Knowing how unpopular they are, the enemy leaders also hate the idea of democracy. They will never let themselves or their ideas face the test of democratic choice. Let me turn now to our political military strategy. We are mov-ing from a stage of transition toward the strategy to prepare a per-manent Iraqi Government for a decisive victory. The strategy that is being carried out has profited from the insights of strategic thinkers, civilian and military, inside and outside the government, who have reflected on our experience and on insurgencies in other periods of history. We know what we must do. With our Iraqi allies, we are working to clear the...
