Who is, then, that wondrous man whom Angels feed and heavenly Messengers cheer on? No doubt, you have recognised him already, my Brethren; he is Elijah, the Prophet Elijah, who had just achieved one of those wonderful deeds, the influence of which is felt throughout all ages. He had caused a fickle, unsteady and rebellious people to acknowledge and proclaim, in the most solemn manner, the Lord God of Israel as the Only, True and Eternal God; he had confounded the idolators and their priests; he had delivered his country from the abominations of the worship of Baal, and compelled a faithless king to bow to truth, and to acknowledge that with Providence alone rested the power of fertilising the earth or withholding the rain. Yet Elijah feels weary and dispirited; he sees that in his mission, not yet fulfilled, he will have numberless obstacles to encounter. He is surrounded by powerful enemies, while his friends are cold and unnerved. His confidence and courage begin to fail; and, whilst a prey to doubts and hesitations, and to sad reflections caused by a true love for his people, he flees to the desert, where, through exhaustion, he falls asleep. But the Angel arouses him, infuses into him a...
